Meeting the needs of individuals ... together. Certain fields are optional, but sharing this information has benefits. All members have a listing on the DCN website for both consumer and trade purposes. Consumers are able to search for duct cleaners in their area, and other duct cleaners are able to search member listings for project collaborations and such. Also, DCN is promoting various programs for which certain company information and criteria will be used, such as M.I.X Groups (Management Information Exchange), and training/mentoring programs. Everyone's participation will be advantageous.

After submission of the form below, the information will be reviewed by the Membership/Ethics committee. Upon approval by the committee, the annual membership fee of $250.00 is due.
